Leading Offshore Technical Conference & Exhibition for Oil & Gas Industry to arrive in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

MOGEC confirm support for Offshore Asia

The KLCC Convention Centre in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia will host the 8th annual Offshore Asia Conference & Exhibition, the region's premier conference and exhibition for the offshore E&P industry, from 21st to 23rd February.

The event, supported by many of Malaysia's leading industry bodies and associations, is considered one of the top conference and exhibition's in the region and is anticipated to receive around 5,000 industry professionals, who will gather for three days of discussions and networking.

Companies presenting in the conference include: Petronas Carigali, Talisman Malaysia, Aker Solutions, Murphy Oil Corporation, Black & Veatch Corp, Technip and WorleyParsons Group, in a program that will see over 30 international speakers delivering presentations covering all aspects of offshore technology exploration and production issues and challenges, covering oil & gas exploration and production as well as the rapidly expanding LNG industry.

The exhibition will see a host of international companies in a packed exhibition hall, enabling the industry to view the latest technologies, products and services and enjoy the latest developments and ideas for the future of the Asian offshore E&P sector.

MOGEC confirm support for Offshore Asia

The support and endorsement of the Association of Malaysian Oil and Gas Consultants (MOGEC) for Offshore Asia follows in the footsteps of the Malaysia Oil & Gas Services Council (MOGSC), Sabah Oil & Gas Contractors Association, Malaysian Society for Engineering & Technology, Geological Society of Malaysia and MATRADE.

The objective of Association of Malaysian Oil and Gas Consultants (MOGEC) is to foster a closer relationship among the oil and gas engineering consultants and Offshore Asia provides a perfect meeting point to achieve this.

The MOGEC membership represents the engineering consultancy companies and professionals found in the Malaysian oil & gas industry, from the big players to the specialist consultancy and engineering services.

Mark Peters, Event Director at PennWell, said, "We are delighted and welcome the endorsement of the Association of Malaysian Oil and Gas Consultants, as well as Malaysia's other industry associations and bodies, such as the Malaysia Oil & Gas Services Council, Sabah Oil & Gas Contractors Association, Malaysian Society for Engineering & Technology, Geological Society of Malaysia and MATRADE. Support from such organizations is important to such an event and we know their members can benefit from the information and education value the programme brings."

"The Offshore Asia conference and exhibition in Malaysia is a valuable source of information on new technology and operating expertise for the Asia-Pacific region. We invite the oil and gas E&P industry to join us in Kuala Lumpur and look forward to a successful event of networking and information gathering opportunities" concluded Mr. Peters.
